

6516206454.txt

I think that they should leave well enough alone, people enjoy the weather and sports along with music and any other types of information that is given over the radio waves I think that they should worry about other more important things then something like this.